All the provinces have some public land. Much of this land is good land. (See Question 61.) (5) Q. Why is there so little private land? A. Because the Filipinos have not tried hard to get land of their own. They have worked on the lands of other people. They have not often enough sought and planted new land for themselves. (6) Q. Why did not the Filipinos try to get land for themselves? A. They did not know where the public land was. They did not know how to get it. Also they did not like to move away from their, homes to distant places. If a man wishes to have land and a home, of his own, he must be willing to leave for a while his town and amusements and friends. This is the way the early settlers of America and many other countries did. (7) Q. How can a Filipino get public land so that it may be his? A. In three ways - by making a homestead on public land; by gift from the Government; by buying it from the Government. A person may lease land from the Government, which gives him the right to live on it, to use and to cultivate it. If a person leases land from the Government, he does not own it. (8) Q. What are the different amounts of land that a man may get from the Government by the various...
