Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Nine-year-old Katy lives in Costa Rica with her missionary parents. Having lived there nearly all her life, she speaks perfect Spanish and feels at home in the culture despite her light skin and blonde hair. But Katy is learning that it isn't easy being the daughter of missionaries. Fitting in, making friends, and achieving success won't come without a struggle. Learn lessons of friendship, forgiveness, and integrity from The Missionaries Daughter. For parents who want to encourage their children to make healthy, godly decisions, The Missionaries Daughter can open opportunities for discussion. It will challenge young readers to do the right thing, even when it isn't popular. Joe White, President, Kanakuk Kamps This story will entertain young readers while writing messages of goodness and mercy on their hearts. Gary Smalley, Founder of the Smalley Relationship Center Having grown up as the child of missionaries and now raising my own children biculturally, I love how this story brings out the challenges and joys of the lives of missionaries. Shawn Inchaustegui, Camp Entrepreneur/Missionary, New Mission Systems International The Missionaries Daughter is going to spread Jesus's passion to all those who read it. Andy Braner, Author of Love This and Duplicate This Discussion questions included in the back of the book!.
