Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Annual Report of the Board of Regents: Of the Smithsonian Institution, Showing the Operators, Expenditures, and Condition of the Institution for the Year 1876 Gentlemen: I have the honor herewith to present to your board the report of the condition and operations of the Smithsonian Institution for the year 1876, it being the thirtieth report which I have been permitted to submit to your honorable body. The long term of service of the principal executive officer of the Institution, and the few changes in the presiding officer of the Board of of Regents, have been attended with the important result of an uninterrupted continuity in the policy of the management of the establishment. A definite conception of the will of Smithson, and of the means best adapted to realize its intention, was clearly apprehended at the beginning, and a plan proposed and partially adopted which would carry out, in the most effectual manner, the ideas expressed in the terms of the bequest. Unfortunately Congress did not delegate to the Board of Regents the power of...
