1987. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. 304 Writing on Ramaswami Venkataraman is a matter of pleasure and upliftment. He is a man who has been serving a great cause-the removal of poverty from India. An able parliamentarian, a patient listener and a conversationalist with a sense of humour-and, above all, a great humanist-Venkataraman has all the makings of a man who deserves the highest office the nation can offer for his outstanding contributions to the freedom struggle and post-independence economic reconstruction of India. Mr. Attar Chand is writer with scientific outlook and much of his present volume is couched in academic pursuit. He has flashed of creative writing which are impressive and his analysis of Venkataramans humanistic outlook-his love for the poor-is particularly remarkable. Mr. Attar Chands study of Venkataraman is well documented and researched and is of value to all in India and abroad. The evolution of Venkataramans socio-economic, cultural, artistic and political ideas is traced and followed cogently with reference to the various influences to which he was subject. Despite the criticism and counter criticism Venkataraman emerges a practical idealist above all a great humanist who made a significant contribution to modern India. The book deserves wide circulation. About The Author:- Attar Chand graduated from the Delhi University with Political Science and Economics, and completed his post-graduation education in 1986. He has been regularly writing for academic journals and newspapers. His understanding of national and international problems has been deepened by his association with social scientists, researchers, editors, journalists, and writers of international repute. He is a member of Indian Council of world Affairs, Indian Institute of Transitional Studies, etc. As a thinker, he is unusually free from ideological, regional, linguistic and any other prejudices. He is amazingly flexible and innovative in his work. In his long and distinguished...
