Diminishing the Sparrow Plague meets the want which is greatly felt, and your voice being raised against poisoning will do good. I propose to send samples to the Agents-General of South Australia and New Zealand, where the Avian Rats are special pests; also to Mr. McKinnon, for the benefit of the Republic of Uruguay. I think one or two would be well placed in the hands of the Department of Agriculture, U.S.A. I suppose that in an obviously much-needed matter like this it is hopeless to expect our Board of Agriculture to do anything. But I have, besides the above, several centres of work which I hope to make use of. I do hope that your book will have the success that it deserves, and be of infinite benefit. I like it thoroughly--its pretty dress, the good figures and readable type on strong paper;...
