Not illustrated. 1920 Excerpt: . a 101 increase over existing Federal taxes and a 56 increase over Federal and State taxes combined, and this does not include any taxes on parts, or any of the fees charged in certain counties and municipalities throughout the country. No industry in the world, great as it may be, can long bear up under taxes of this character. We are not unaware of the need of funds by the Government to take the place of the excess profit and other taxes which your Committee plans to eliminate. We are entirely in accord with many of their thoughts in this connection, but we feel that, in fairness to a reat industry, we should not be overburdened, and in fact tiiat none of the others who are now paying sales taxes should be further burdened until some other industries are brought under the same heading. In closin I desire to take this opportunity to express our thanks to tie Tax Committee for taking motor vehicles out of the class of perfumes and face owder. We have long felt that these great machines which have added so much to the productivity of America did not belong under that heading. If there is to be any justice in taxation, we feel sure, after all the facts are considered, that the Tax Committee will appreciate that the automobile industry is now bearing its share of taxes. In answer to the question as to how much is being spent in...
