

Abraham Lincoln: An Address (Classic Reprint)

By William Eleazar Barton

Forgotten Books, United States, 2016. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Abraham Lincoln: An Address America is large and is growing larger. Once she was a thin strip of partially cleared land, bounded on the East by the vast ocean and on the West by the unexplored wilderness. Gradually she stretched westward till the Pacific Ocean was her boundary toward the going down of the sun. Now she extends westward to Hawaii and the Philippines, and no man dare say in terms of her international influence just where she is bounded Eastward. Those fields in Flanders and in France where her sons lie buried, those lands of the Near East that have been rescued from starvation and anarchy by her generosity, are bound to us by ties stronger than political bands and have given to the United States new areas, if not of territory or political control, at least of moral power and of ethical responsibility. But as America has grown, the fame of her great men has grown with it. The men who incarnated Americas ideal when America was thirteen small colonies, still worthily incarnate...
