Excerpt: . . . 36 SUCCESS OF MEDICAL MISSIONS. who is a physician is pardoned for being a Christian; religious and national prejudices disappear before him; all hearts and harems are opened; and he is welcomed as if he were carrying to the dying the elixir of immortality. He more than any one else possesses the mollia tempora fandi. 1 In the wilds of the Assyrian mountains, Dr. Asahel Grant, armed with his needle for the removal of cataract, forced mountain passes which the sword could not command; and amidst ferocious warriors won his way to their homes and their hearts. On account of his professional skill he was enabled to traverse in safety regions heretofore untrodden by civilized man; where inevitable death met the ordinary traveller, and in whose defiles an army would perish in attempting to effect a forcible entrance. 2 In Damascus, while all other...
