By Alan Salant

Oliver Arts and Open Press, United States, 2010. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 213 x 137 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Broccoli for breakfast is not recommended unless it puts you in touch with central truths about human nature. And in this comic-serious masterpiece, that's exactly what it does for Professor Wilson Ablong, rudely irreverent Nobel laureate and internationally renowned medical hero. Yet Ablong remains a lost and isolated soul until a young man seeking a mentor turns the professor's world upside-down. Then the same mind that drew from mythology, math, literature, and philosophy to cure major diseases begins scouring its own contents to heal itself. So sit down, take a few deep breaths, and join Wilson Ablong on his sly, subtle, sharp, riotously funny quest and let this one-in-a-million novel wash over you with its charm, resonance, and—yes, its profound depth.
