Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .There was a whizz of rubber-tired wheels, a cloud of dust and the frightened yelping of a dog as a big, red touring automobile shot down the road. You nearly ran over him, Chunky! exclaimed Jerry Hopkins, to the stout youth at his side. That s what you did, Bob Baker! chimed in Ned Slade, leaning over from the rear seat of the auto. I thought you said you were an expert. I didn t come within five feet of the pup, answered Bob Baker, giving the steering wheel a twist to avoid a chicken that scooted across the country road. Never mind-miss as good as a mile-we certainly are skating along-never say die-hit a dog, biff! bang! up in the air-down again-bust a tire-break your leg-kill the animal-off again-whoop! Say, Andy Rush, if you re going to talk as fast as that the first time Chunky speeds the machine, I m going to get out! cried Jerry, with a laugh. There s excitement enough without you making any more. All right, fellows, I ll keep quiet, agreed Andy, who was a small, nervous chap, never still for a moment, and so full of energy that he talked, as Jerry sometimes said, like a house afire. Bob leaned forward and pulled one of the levers. The auto slowed down, as the low-speed gear came into play, and bowled along under a stretch of shady trees. Fifteen miles in thirty minutes, remarked the stout lad, pulling out his watch. Not so bad for a starter, eh, Ned? The machine certainly can go! observed Jerry.
