Brand New Book  Print on Demand .In the midst of a boarding school demise, a young and naive nun experiences an intense sexual awakening. Retold through her diary, the secluded school of St. Martin s is falling apart. To make matters worse, a student goes missing, pitting fear and doubt against the school s headmaster. When the headmaster begins exhibiting disturbing behavior, it s up to the nun to protect the last remaining students. Aide arrives in the form of a mysterious priest, whose very presence poses the rawest temptation for the nun. But as winter closes in on the isolated group, an unseen danger takes hold, threatening escape. The nun s final testimony of her affair with a priest and their battle against seemingly true evil will blur the line between cabin fever and a haunting from hell. +++ EXCERPT: February 20, 1995 I ve spent the last few days avoiding Fr. Derrick. Not an easy task in a school with a population of 7. Today he finally cornered me alone, though. I suppose it was inevitable. Do I look diseased? What? You ve done your best to keep me at a distance, and cover yourself with the kids the past few days. I m assuming my appearance has rattled you. He wasn t wrong. My nerves were on edge, and what I had prayed for was a way out. Not a new stranger to figure out. I like to keep structure for the children. It keeps them occupied. I wanted to get away from him, but he was blocking the doorway. I m just asking for a moment. I d like to help. The missing boy-that has to...
