Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Large Print. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .One Friday evening, Jack and Saylena Davis were out on a power-walk when they stumbled across a dead woman in the local city park. The woman was lying on the ground, legs draped over a picnic bench, like she was in a sit-up position, and a pistol was near her right hand. A single gunshot to the right temple pierced her skull and her blood steamed off the cold concrete. Police officer, Nickole Cunningham, Medical Examiner, hazardous waste cleanup crew, and city Detective Sergeant were notified of the discovery. Nickole arrived on scene to investigate the matter and met up with coworker, off-duty Jack Davis and his wife Saylena, who found the body and called the station. Taking Jack's lead, Nickole came to the same conclusion that it was nothing more than a suicide. The woman sat on a park bench, took a gun, and shot herself through the head. The woman's face was disfigured beyond recognition, had no identification in her possession, so she'd have to be identified by another means. The ME, Terry Marshall arrived and transported the woman to the County Coroner-Morgue and issued her temporary identification, Toe-Tag #5. The hazardous waste cleanup crew arrived and left the gruesome scene like it never happened. Nickole finished up with a diagram and photographs for her report and returned to the station. Toe-Tag #5 is later identified as socialite, Laura Baylyn Caswell, married to a wealthy and powerful developer, Walter. She'd served on several boards and committees and had power and influence in both city and county government. She was admired by many, wished dead by others. City police, Detective Sergeant...
